The Procession will retire, the Congregation standing.

Organist: Mr. Michael Dudman
One could mention overseas Visiting Professorships between 1949 and 1975, at the Universities of Chicago, Harvard, Utah, Illinois, Washington, Harvard again and Calcutta. Whilst still at the University of Melbourne, he was a frequent speech-maker, gave many news commentaries on radio, appeared on various T.V. programmes and was in demand as an after dinner speaker. His Excellency's Boyer Lectures for the Australian Broadcasting Commission in 1969 are well-remembered by many, but to these should be added the Mitchell Lectures, University of Buffalo, 1954; the Rosenthal Lectures, Northwestern University, 1964; the Harris Lectures, University of Indiana, 1965; the Macrossan Lectures, University of Queensland, 1965; and the Tagore Law Lectures, University of Calcutta, 1975.

And yet there was still time found for a remarkable range of cultural interests, his public activities at various times including those of a Trustee of the Sydney Opera House, a member of the Board of Directors of the Australian Opera and of many other national and state organizations. By way of illustration, positions held at the time of his appointment as Governor-General included academic governor of the Board of Governors, Hebrew University of Jerusalem; member of the Council of the University of Lesotho; member, Queensland Regional Selection Committee, Winston Churchill Memorial Trust; member, Club of Rome; president, Australian Institute of Urban Studies; chairman, Board of Governors, Utah Foundation; trustee, Queensland Overseas Foundation; Law Reform Commissioner, Commonwealth of Australia.

Little wonder, Mr. Chancellor, that Sir Zelman has been elected to honorary membership of many academies, to various honorary Fellowships, or that he has received honorary degrees from other universities here and overseas. Little surprise that the Australian community found a person of such eminence in the law, with such a record of public service, such a deep humanity, and married to a lady of equal distinction in her own right, an inspired choice as Australia's nineteenth Governor-General.
Mr. Chancellor, I have the honour to present to you for admission to the Honorary Degree of Doctor of the University, Zelman Cowen, Chancellor and Principal Knight of the Order of Australia, Knight Grand Cross of the Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Knight of the Order of Saint John of Jerusalem, Queen’s Counsel, Doctor of Civil Law and Master of Arts in the University of Oxford, Bachelor of Arts and Master of Laws in the University of Melbourne and Doctor of Laws (honoris causa) in the Universities of Hong Kong, Queensland and Melbourne, Doctor of Letters (honoris causa) in the Universities of New England and Sydney, Honorary Fellow of the Academy of Social Sciences in Australia, Honorary Fellow of the Australian College of Education, Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts, Honorary Fellow of the Royal Australian Institute of Architects, Honorary Fellow of New College, Oxford, Honorary Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford, Honorary Master of the Bench, Gray’s Inn, Foreign Honorary Member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and Governor-General of Australia.
